Hot, dry weather, with hot winds, throughout the past week, has done much harm to grain in southern Alberta, especially on light soil and grain sown on stubble. Grain on summerfallow is not showing the effects nearly so much, though it has a decidedly thin look. Rain is badly needed now.

Tony McKinley, provincial organizer for the order of Elks, informs The Review that he will start on the organization of a lodge in Claresholm next week. Granum and Staveland lodges have recently been formed with membership of over fifty in each place. Tony believes that Claresholm will almost treble the membership of either of these places.

Gladys Parr is spending a short time in Calgary where she is receiving medical care for her throat and nose. She was a patient at the Holy Cross hospital for a few days last week, when her tonsils and adenoids were removed by Dr. McGuffin of Calgary. There is already a great improvement in her condition and she has high hopes of having less nose and throat trouble in the future.

The pony entered by Robert Arthur of Claresholm in the class for jumpers at the Calgary exhibition brought home the bacon in the class for ponies under 14½, winning over such horses as Calgary Lass who holds the world's record, Grey Ghost of the Welsh stables, and King Pin. In the open class Arthur's pony took fourth place in a field of ten. While in Calgary Arthur purchased a heavy hunter which when put in training should prove to be a good jumper.

Death of Richard Brown

Richard Brown, who has been a highly respected resident of Claresholm for many years, passed away at the local hospital shortly after noon on Thursday, aged 68 years.

He had been in poor health for some time past, but was up and around till Monday when he took a decided turn for the worse, and it became evident that an operation was his only chance, which he underwent on Tuesday night. But the operation revealed that his ailment, a large accumulation of pus in the gall bladder, had progressed too far and he did not long survive the operation, passing away on Thursday.

The late Mr. Brown was an old timer, having come here from Manitoba 19 years ago.

The funeral service will be held in the Bethel United church on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being in Claresholm cemetery.

Eileen Hoff, prima donna—the girl with the golden voice—will appear at Chautauqua on the closing night.

Remember the Gladys Attree vaudeville performers at the Rex theater July 20.

CHAUTAUQUA

The town of Clareholm will be a center of attraction for the next two weeks. The Chautauqua will open up on July 22nd, to be followed immediately by the fair and stampede.

The Chautauqua comes this year at a most appropriate time and brings the best program ever presented in the west, which is the unanimous opinion of all preceding towns. This Chautauqua circuit started near Vancouver early in May, and in every town it has entered it has met with great success.

A large number of the community who are unable to take a holiday will have the privilege of seeing and hearing artists, in their own town, which talent they could not otherwise have.

There will be eleven programs, all of which will cost only $3.00 for the season ticket if purchased at once.

This will be a clean, elevating, educative, inspiring time, supported and brought here through the signed purchase of the majority of the tickets by that people of this community and guaranteed by a committee of thirty-one.

The boys' and girls' special ticket will be $1.00, and every one of them is looking forward for this treat.

Mr. Cruckshank, of the Hughes drug store, has taken over the secretary's duties.

Buy your tickets early. Every boy and girl should get a ticket and a Scout's paper.

United Church Services

For the balance of the summer vacation season the services of St. Andrew's and Bethel United churches will be merged each Sunday, one service being held in each church. These union services commence with next Sunday, July 19, and the Rev. Geo. Welcher will have charge for the first four Sundays, while the Rev. G. W. Langille is away on his vacation.

The morning service at 11 o'clock will be held in St. Andrew's church, and the evening service in Bethel church at 7:30 o'clock.

The Sunday schools will meet as usual at the close of the morning service at 12 o'clock.

The annual united Sunday schools picnic will be held on the afternoon of Wednesday, August 5th.

The entire Province of Prince Edward Island and adjacent islands have been leased for oil prospecting purposes to Henry L. Doherty & Company, according to an announcement by the concern. The lease has been taken on option.

Indications are that 1925 will be one of the best tourist seasons ever experienced by Montreal. It is estimated that 750,000 people from all over the continent visited Montreal last year, while this year the number is placed at a million.

It is understood that a contract has been let for the laying of a submarine cable from Vancouver Island to Savu, Fiji Islands, by the Pacific Cable Board. This is part of the "allied" cable and wireless route which is being established between British possessions the world over.

In order to facilitate this work of the air force patrol radio stations are being erected at the Pac. Norway House, Victoria Beach, and Fort Osborne Barracks, Winnipeg. The stations will be equipped with radio and will be able to receive a variety of communication all over Canada.

"Judging from the amount of sound business activity noticeable here, British Columbia is launching into an era of extensive development which augurs well for her future prosperity," comments Grant Hall, Vice-President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, who recently spent ten days on the Pacific Coast.

"So long as the Canadian Pacific Railway has a dollar left in its treasury, it will fight for the ideals, uphold the faith and maintain the precious heritage of civilization," said E. W. Brattay, chairman and President of the Canadian Pacific Railway, when addressing the Canadian Manufacturers' association at their annual convention held at Hamilton recently.

Eleven hundred pounds of speckled trout, gray trout and pike were the trophies taken back to New York recently by seven members of the Coughswaun Hunting and Fishing Club, private province near Montreal, after a two-week stay on the fishing grounds. The catch included a 19-lb. gray trout and the average weight worked out at around eight pounds.

Frank W. Ashby, secretary of the Australian Manufacturers' Association, visiting here recently, said the impression in Australia was that Canada was the back door to the North Pole. People in the Antipodes think that Herschel Island and Baffin's Bay are tucked up municipally with Montreal and Winnipeg, he said. He was surprised to find the Dominion had a delightful climate and cities more modern than those in Australia.

What is stated to be the biggest log jam in sixty years recently occurred on the Montreal River in a gorge through which the river flows into Lake Temiskaming. 300,000 logs were piled up to a height of 50 feet with a width of 350 yards, choking the river for 300 yards down at the point where the jam took place. An army of 100 men, working night and day for three days, at last succeeded in breaking the jam with dynamite.

A three-week tour of Canada by teachers and their friends is, under the auspices of Dean S. Laird, of MacDonald College, will leave Toronto July 29 on the Canadian Pacific Railway. The party will travel by train to Vancouver and Victoria, and will return by way of Southern British Columbia, across the northern end of the Fraser to Edmonton and by boat from Fort William east. Stops will be made at all the principal points of interest.

Many Compliments For Empire Exhibition

Wembley Show This Year Could Not Be Improved On

The finished and magnificent appearance of the British Empire Exhibition this year has been generally recognized and has been the subject of complimentary comment since the opening of the big show at Wembley. The beautiful gardens, the wonderful illuminations, the catering for the big crowd, and the tireless labor of the exhibition have little, if anything, that could be improved upon.

Unfortunately, through the misreading of a Canadian Press cable recently in connection with a comparison which was made between the Wembley show and the International show at Paris, it was made to appear that the former show had not been in the opening, whereas the Paris exhibition was. What was intended to be conveyed in the cable was that the Wembley show had emerged with complete credit with its readiness for receiving visitors from the up-king (to forward).

Some Idea of New Zealand

Some idea of Canada's trade with New Zealand can be gathered from the fact that exports from Canada during the month of February, 1925, amounted to $1,612,277. The greatest amount was made up of agricultural and vegetable products, while wool, wood products and paper amounted to $12,245. The greatest amount was furnished by iron and iron products, exports of which in the month of February amounted to $272,115.

Believe In Success
Of Non-Stop Flight

French Aviators Preparing For Paris-New York Trip

"Our chances of success are five in 100, and that is sufficient," said Paul Taronon, well-known aviator, when questioned about the proposed Paris-New York non-stop flight which he and another war ace, Francis Coli, will attempt this summer.

"The big jump can be made. Given a smooth working motor and a sound navigable plane with a lifting capacity sufficient to take off with enough fuel to stay in the air 30 hours, the Paris-New York flight is no more difficult than several feats performed in recent years," Coli opined.

Expert mechanics are now busy tuning up the motor, while plane builders are putting the finishing touches to the machine. The latter part of July has been fixed as the probable time.

Five thousand litres of fuel and oil which the plane must carry at the start, present a problem. How to store this liquid without interfering with the stability of the plane is causing the experts much trouble.

England, Ireland, Newfoundland, and Nova Scotia is the proposed itinerary.

Sweden Developing Electrical Power

Intends In Time To Electrify All Of

After having ruled supreme for 100 years, steam is being routed in Sweden as a motive power in transportation both on land and sea. The most recently published statistics show that all of the boats now under construction in Swedish shipyards, more than 80 per cent are to be propelled by motors, and on the railroads the old-fashioned locomotives are being discarded in favor of other electrical engines or motor trucks. Having no coal and plenty of water power, Sweden intends in time to electrify all its railroads.

In the meantime motor driven trucks are rapidly displacing the steam engines on shorter hauls. The Halfstad-Nasajo line, for instance, has converted an ordinary automobile into a railroad truck, capable of hauling three and a half tons at 25 miles an hour. Railroad trucks with three motors, which burn crude oil, are still more economical, and the Devo Company of Gothenburg has completed 25 of this type and has ten more under construction.

To Rebuild Minaki Inn
Guests Will Be Accommodated at the Lodge and Resort is Open as Usual

Immediate steps will be taken to rebuild the Minaki Inn, burned to the ground recently. Loss through fire to buildings and equipment has been estimated at $150,000, fully covered by insurance. The management of the Canadian National Railways announced that preparations have been made to accommodate guests at the Lodge at Minaki, which was undamaged by fire. New equipment on the line will be used to transport the guests to the lodge. The lodge was originally intended for the housing of winter guests, and is one of the most substantial buildings at Minaki.

The fire destroyed only the main building and contents. The dance pavilion, boat house, swimming accommodations and ice house were untouched by flames and will be operated as in past years. The new golf course was in no way damaged by the fire.

Winnipeg Summer Fair
Educational Features Will Occupy An Important Place

Educational features will have an important place in the Winnipeg summer fair, as more than three hundred acres of space have been set aside, and will be devoted to special demonstrations and instructive subjects, dealing with vital subjects affecting the city, home and nation.

Among the new places to be seen during the two weeks will be those things with early trading with the Indians; the granting of the royal charter by King Charles II. in 1670; Prince Rupert; the first governor of the Hudson's Bay Company, Sir Robert Selkirk; King David's Bay, G.B.E., the present governor; the purchasing of the Red River land from the Indians; King George V.; Queen Mary; Lord Byng; Lord Selkirk; Sir Arthur Currie; Sir James Adair; Premier John Bracken; Mayor R. H. Wabbe; City Clerk Chas. Brown; the provincial and city emblems; coat-of-arms of Canada; historical events; and other famous personages.

There is no future in being a high-class salesman.

THE NEW CHATEAU LAKE LOUISE

This new nine-story hotel, occupying the ground space of an entire city block, was taken over from the contractors two weeks before its opening on June 1, by the Canadian Pacific Railway. It is the new Chateau Lake Louise, built last winter at a cost of two million dollars on the banks of the famous Lake Louise 6,500 feet high in the Canadian Rockies.

To equip this new hotel and stock it with food for guest occupancy on June 1, 800 beds, 290 bunks, 750 chairs, 290 pieces of upholstery, 290 desks for rooms, with sheets and pillow cases, bed bedding and other equipment to match, had to be transported three and a half miles up a narrow gauge mountain railway. The perishable food which had to be stocked in the hotel the day before its opening, included 11,000 pounds of turkey, 8,000 pounds of roasting fowl, 18 whole lamb, 12 whole hogs, 1,000 pounds of new cabbage, 40 cases of grapefruit and 20 cases of fresh salmon. Approximately 7,000 eggs had to be rushed from the C.P.R. farms at Strathcona, Alberta, and placed in refrigeration. Of the non-perishable foodstuffs, five tons of potatoes, 200 sacks of flour, 20 tons of sugar, 5,000 pounds of butter, a ton of tea and a thousand pounds of fresh coffee had to be placed in the larders.

All told, a special train of eight cars carrying 250 tons of foodstuffs was required to open this remarkable edifice. And all of this had to be rushed in at the last moment, for the opening banquet at the hotel lasted the full capacity of the new dining rooms of 200 persons.

A staff of 425 men and women, including three managers, had to be on hand a week before its opening. These employees have a building to themselves equipped with rooms with bath, hot and cold running water, a restaurant and a ballroom.

The new Chateau Lake Louise has 400 rooms with bath, all outside rooms, 210 of them with gardens, overlooking the famous lake. Besides telephone and cable offices in the grounds, each bedroom contains a phone which can be connected with long distance.

A resident doctor and trained nurse will have offices in this building to look after the health of its guests, and a special dining room has been built for the multi, married and young or children of the guests.

Chateau Lake Louise is now said to be the largest and most modern equipped chateau in the world.

Factor That Will Likely Help Prices Up For Some Time

Blue ribbon gentlemen, who do not like to see the farmers happy, tell them that high wheat prices cannot last because those prices are supported solely by speculation. They say that the bottom may drop out of the wheat market any day that some gambling ring wants it to drop. The farmers should not be worried much about it. There is one factor that will probably hold wheat prices up for years.

Normally, Russia produces one billion bushels of wheat. For the past few years Russian wheat has not been a factor in world markets. Nor will it be a factor for years to come—Vancouver Sun.

Best Pastime For Hogs

Sudan grass had a slight superiority over Marrow-stemmed kale in a test made with Berkshire and Yorkshire hogs at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, in 1923. There was little difference in the actual feeding value of the two pastures, but the Sudan was ready earlier than the kale and supplied green feed for a period of nine days longer.

Sauce For The Goose

More Co-operation and a Better Understanding Needed Between the East and the West

At the dinner given by the Quebec division of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, an attempt was made to have all the provinces represented on the bill of fare. Saskatchewan was represented by "Steak" and Manitoba by "Sauce," while Alberta was recognized by serving "Assorted Cakes."

These are all very light refreshments to represent the hardy sons of toil of the plains, but what else could one expect from such an organization? They represent very well the amount of consideration Western Canada has received at their hands. A little Saskatchewan salad, over which is poured some Manitoba sauce, with a few Alberta assorted cakes as a tit-bit may do as a filler, but as 'substantial fare' will not go far in satisfying a young, strong robust man.

Now, these prairie provinces are dishing up to the Canadian manufacturers something far more substantial upon which they are feeding sumptuously every day. Who in the west is but human like the rest of the world? It gives us pleasure to help another; it also affords us pleasure when we receive from the good graces of another. Western Canada is certainly doing its part to place our country on the map. Its products are known world-wide and we are today contributing considerably to the wealth of Canada. We feel, therefore, that when a little more co-operation between the provinces is coming to us when our wishes and needs are being discussed by our eastern friends.

If you give a person too much of any one food, it becomes nauseating and a variety must be made if full development is to be attained. The west feels that a little change in diet would be very beneficial if full development is to be attained. It feels that a little change in diet would be very beneficial if full development is to be hoped for, and as our prosperity is soon reflected by property in the east, it should not be difficult to have a change brought about. This can be done by a little more sympathetic co-operation between the middle east and the west. Each needs the other if both are to develop as we have seen that the west will have to be shown by the highly-protected east, and a little more appreciation of what the west means to the prosperity and greatness of Canada—Manitoba Times.

Prize Cattle Shipped

Big Shipment Is Made Of Prize Cattle From Alberta

The first contingent of prize cattle for 1925 left Montreal recently, consisting of two hundred and seven head of prize cattle from the Canadian Association of Alberta, and averaging around twelve hundred pounds in weight at three years of age. One hundred and twenty-five of the prize cattle came direct from Edmonton spring shows where they had captured the prize, after the national show. Others included in the lot were the grand champion steer formerly owned by the University of Alberta, and five Hereford steers that took first place at Regina, Calgary and Saskatoon shows.

South African Farming Has Greatly Increased Prices of Wales

With regard to a report that the Prince of Wales has entertained the idea of selling his South African farm game shooting, the general impression is that His Royal Highness is not particularly interested in his game and 100 seems to be long out of his recent recollection of a projected visit to a game reserve.

It is a fact, however, throughout his life in South Africa, has shown the deepest possible interest in farming, and South African farmers who have spoken to him during it quite possible that he may buy a farm and encourage sheep breeding and the raising of horses and dairy cattle in this country.

Canada's Fruit Production

Fruit production in Canada during 1924 had a value of $24,647,147, a decrease from the figure of the previous year, due principally to smaller quantities of apples. It is quite possible that the federal bureau of statistics, the producers are the principal items of production. Apples, $18,747,647; peaches, $1,152,241; cherries, $1,888,151.

"CAPTAIN BLOOD," a Viagraph picture with J. Warren Kerrigan in the title role, in an adaptation of this thrilling novel.

CHAPTER XXIV.

Cartagena

Having crossed the Caribbean in the teeth of contrary wind, it was not until the early days of April that the French fleet here in sight of Cartagena, and M. Rivarol summoned a council aboard his flagship to determine the method of attack.

"It is of importance, messieurs," he told them, "that we take the city by surprise, not only because we can put itself into a state of defence; but before it can remove its treasure island. I propose to take a force sufficient to achieve this to the north of the city tonight after dark."

He was heard respectfully and approvingly by his officers, especially by Captain Blood. Blood was the only one amongst them who knew exactly what lay about. They had not had himself considered a raid upon the place, and he had actually made a survey of it. The Baron's proposal was one to be expected from a commander whose knowledge of Cartagena was only such as might be derived from maps.

Geographically and strategically considered, it is a curious place. It stands about four square, screened east and north by hills, and from the sea to face south upon the tangle of two harbors by which it is normally approached. The entrance to the outer harbor, which is in reality a lagoon some three miles across, lies through a neck known as the Boca Chica—or Little Mouth—and is defended by a fort. A long strip of densely wooded land to westward sits here upon a natural breakwater, and as the inner harbor is approached, another strip of land thrusts across at right angles from the former towards the mainland on the east. Just short of this M. Rivarol, leaving a deep but very narrow channel, a variable gateway into the secure shelter of the inner harbor. Another fort defends this second passage. East and north of Cartagena lies the Bay of San Pedro, may be left out of account. But to the west and northwest this city, so well guarded on every other side, lies directly open to the sea, and extends back beyond a half-mile of beach, and besides this and the stout walls which fortify it, would appear to have no other defenses.

It remained for Captain Blood to explain the difficulties of the situation. M. Rivarol informed him that the honor of opening the assault in the manner which he described was to be accorded to the buccaniers.

NERVES AND FAINTING SPELLS

Sent Woman to Bed, Great Change After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sarina, Ontario.—"After my girls were born I was a wreck. My nerves were too terrible for words and I simply could not stand up in the house. I suffered with fainting spells until I was no longer able to do the household duties and had to take to my bed. The doctor said I should have an operation, but I was afraid of that. At that time, my neighbor said, 'Why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?' I am sure it will do you good and will save you a great deal of trouble. So I was advised by my husband to try it after I had been in bed a few weeks. I am very thankful to say that I was soon able to take a few boarders for a while as I was now ready to get up. My baby is 17 months old now and I have not yet had an operation. Thanks to your medicine, I am recommended the Vegetable Compound. I am sure you know and have told them the good it has done me. I live now in a very different woman these last few months and I certainly would not be without a bottle of your medicine in the house. You can use this letter as you see fit, as I should be only glad to tell those suffering as I have to know what it has done for me.—Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, R. R. No. 2, Sarina, Ontario. A French Canadian."

The Vegetable Compound proved itself at 3000 successful results. This is a remarkable proof of its efficacy.

Pleasure in Recreation

People in Peru Town interested in

New Pastimes
The inhabitants of a small factory town in Peru took to Y.M.C.A. recreation activities with such enthusiasm that many of them refused to interrupt their play to go home for food. Their leisure pastimes used to consist mainly of drinking and gambling, but now under the direction of a leader from the Lima Association who visits them once a week, they are discovering new pleasures in cage ball and other games.

plunder was enormous. In the course of four days over a hundred miles laden with gold went out of the city and down to the boats waiting at the beach to convey the treasure aboard the ships.

CHAPTER XXV.

The Honour of M. de Rivarol

During the capitulation and for some time after, Captain Blood and the other officers of his vessel were at their post on the heights of Nuestra Señora de la Pueta, utterly in ignorance of what was taking place. Rivarol, unobserved, assembled his men for a while, to flame out violently at the end of that week in Cartagena. It was only by undertaking to voice their grievances to the Baron that their captain was able for the moment to pacify them. That done, he went at once in quest of M. de Rivarol. "M. le Baron, I must speak frankly, and you must suffer it. My men are on the point of mutiny. They demand to know when this sharing of the spoil is to take place, and when they are to receive the fifth portion of their articles provided. The men know that it exceeds the enormous total of forty millions. They insist that the treasure must be produced and weighed in their presence, warn you that unless you yield to them, they will march on the city and force upon you, you may look for trouble, and it would not surprise me if you never leave Cartagena at all, nor convey a single good piece home to France."

"Am I to understand that you are threatening me?"

"You do not know the ways of buccaniers. If you persist, Cartagena will berenched in blood, and what the outcome the King of Spain will not have been well served."

The end of it all was that M. de Rivarol, at the promise at once to make the necessary preparations, and if Captain Blood and his officers would wait on board the ship, he would leave to-morrow. The treasure should be produced, weighed in their presence and then into their own keeping.

Among the buccaniers that night there was a great deal of talk. Speaking about the Arripes and the Loches, about M. de Rivarol's monstrous pride. But when the next dawn broke over Cartagena, they had the explanation of it. The only ship to be seen in the harbour were the Arabella and the Elizabeth riding at anchor.

The four buccanier ships were careened on the beach for repair of the damage sustained in the bombardment. The French ships were gone. Blood was reduced to despair.

He followed now, Heaven knew what would happen to the town. Unable to reach a decision, his own men and Hadrage's took the matter off to Rivarol, eager to give chase to Rivarol.

Request Not Unreasonable

Inhabitants on Lineal Island Ask

Red Mail Once a Year

Natives of Tristan da Cunha in the South Atlantic, known as the linealists, have written the English government requesting the government recently to arrange an annual mail boat for them, declaring that if this were brought about, they would be able to stay in the island; otherwise they threatened to emigrate.

News of the settlement was brought to London by the Rev. H. H. Rogers, who for three years was a missionary and schoolmaster to the island.

Mr. Rogers made up his mind more than a year ago to return to England, but he was compelled to wait 12 months for a ship. He was accompanied by his wife and baby who was born on Tristan da Cunha two years ago. During the family's stay on the island there was but one mail ship.

The headline mark on ships was originated by Pittman, an Englishman, to prevent vessels from going to sea overloaded.

"I have to report," M. le Baron, that we are in possession of the fort on Boca Chica. The standard of France is flying from what remains of its tower, and the way into the outer harbor is open to your fleet.

"You behold there the scene of our coming action. It is spread before you like a map."

Blood pointed out the inner harbor and the official plant of the French fleet. Cartagena's flag flew from the invaders.

At noon on the morrow, shore of defenses and threatened with bombardment, Cartagena sent offers of surrender to M. de Rivarol. The plunder was enormous. In the course of four days over a hundred miles laden with gold went out of the city and down to the boats waiting at the beach to convey the treasure aboard the ships.

Testing Chronometers For Navy

Marine Watch is Subjected To Intense Heat and Cold

Baking a watch seems a silly thing to do. Yet at Greenwich Observatory it is done every day. The watches are marine chronometers, says J. A. B. and J. A. B.

Greenwich Observatory, being under the control of the admiralty, it is part of the routine work of that establishment to test chronometers for the use of the navy. This work has been continuously done there for the last hundred years.

At Greenwich there are special ovens in which the chronometers are placed and raised to any required temperature. Their rates are then compared under these conditions with a standard clock. The temperature of the oven can be maintained constant by means of thermocouples, the chronometers being kept under observation while being during the time of baking.

Ship's bells often fail to high latitudes where they meet with intense cold, so the chronometers must also be placed in refrigerating chambers and further tested under these conditions.

The process of winding is fast making this work unnecessary. Greenwich time can now be picked up anywhere at sea and the error of the chronometer found on the spot.

Spring Cleaning Had Destructive Results For One Man

Spring cleaning had reached that awesome state when strong men have been known to rush from the house broom in their hands, and to direct attention to the opportunity which the Dominion affords for settlers, not only from the Dominion, but from other lands as well.

Many other prominent Canadians, including Premier John Bracken, of Manitoba, took part in the ceremony. The occasion of Canada's co-operation in the Dominion's efforts to attract greater attention to the opportunity which the Dominion affords for settlers, not only from the Dominion, but from other lands as well.

Paying Twice For Nothing

Heligoland Was Not a Profitable Investment For Germany

Heligoland has been stripped of its armament. A former British territory was long and harshly criticized for its failure to provide a safe haven for the German fleet. The British government, however, was not so easily deterred. It was not until the late 19th century that the British government decided to purchase Heligoland from Germany. The purchase was a costly one, but it was necessary to ensure the safety of the German fleet. The British government, however, was not so easily deterred.
